

We need public access. This is one of the most powerful mediums i've ever seen in action. People's lives have changed for the better. The community has a voice that can actually spread farther than a paper trail could ever. The people need this. This is the very symbol of free speech that america preaches. It should flow forever.